Official Form 106CSchedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt*04/19

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

Attachment to Official Form 106 D/E/F

Secured Claims, Priority Claims, and Unsecured Claims

Any failure to designate a claim listed on Form 106 as "disputed", "contingent", or "unliquidated", does not constitute any admission by the debtor that such amount is not "disputed", "contingent", or "unliquidated". The debtor reserves the right to dispute and assert setoff rights, counter-claims, or defenses to any claim reflected on Form 106 as to the amount, liability, classification, or to otherwise subsequently designate any claim as "disputed", "contingent", or "unliquidated". Additionally, the dollar amount of any claim listed may be exclusive of contingent and additional unliquidated amounts.

Further, the claims of individual creditors for merchandise, goods, services, loans, taxes, penalties, or restitution, are listed using the amount from the debtor's records and may not reflect credits or allowances due from a creditor to the debtor.

The descriptions provided are intended only to be a characterization or summary. Reference to the applicable source of the debt, a credit agreement, or other document is necessary for a complete description of the type of debt, collateral, and the nature, extent, and priority of any liens. Nothing herein shall be deemed a modification or interpretation of the terms of such agreements.

In reviewing and signing the Schedules and Statements, the debtor has necessarily used the correspondence, statements, information, and representations of one or more of the creditors, collectors, debt buyers, collection attorneys, servicers, default servicers, master servicers, primary servicers, and other entities and parties. The debtor has not been able to personally verify the accuracy of each statement or representation, including statements and representations concerning amounts owed to creditors, their addresses, and whether or not such claims are duly perfected as secured claims.

The debtor may not have set forth as assets, all causes of action against all third parties in the Schedules and Statement of Financial Affairs, since said causes of action are not apparent or known to the debtor at this time. The debtor reserves all of his or her rights with respect to any cause of action and neither this attachment nor the Schedules and Statements shall be deemed a waiver of any such cause of action or an admission of the validity of any scheduled claim.

Although the debtor has scheduled the claims of various creditors as secured claims, the debtor reserves all rights to dispute and challenge the secured nature of any such claim, the characterization of the structure of any such transaction, and any document or instrument related to such claim. The debtor also reserves the right to challenge the standing of any party to assert a claim, and whether or not any party is the real party in interest with respect to such claim.

The debtor reserves the right to dispute or challenge the validity, perfection, or immunity from avoidance, of any lien purported to be granted or perfected in a specific asset to a creditor listed on Form 106. The debtor reserves the right to challenge or dispute the formation of any securitized trust and whether or not the assets in the trust were properly transferred, sold, assigned, and negotiated from the originators, in an unbroken chain of transfers, sales, assignments and negotiations, to the said trust.

In certain instances, the debtor may be a co-obligor, co-mortgagor, or guarantor with respect to a claim, and no claim scheduled on Form 106, is intended to acknowledge any claim of a creditor that is satisfied or discharged by other individuals or entities.

Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §1322(b)(7) the debtor specifically rejects any and all executory contracts and contractual provisions with any other party or entity listed on the Chapter 13 plan and/or Form 106 Schedules D, E, F, and G, which could or may impose on the debtor and/or the Chapter 13 Trustee any duty, requirement, or obligation to submit any claims, demands, or causes of action of the debtor, to any form of binding arbitration or alternative dispute resolution, whether arising under the Federal Arbitration Act, or any state rule, statute, or regulation.
